	CLASSIFICATION CONSTRUCTOR OF TOTAL OF TOTAL ONLY	-
MINTR	y Soviet Zone, Germany	2
	GOTHA Airfield	-
5X1
	25X1	-
		-
	DATE PREPARED 11 Novembor 1949	-
RFFERE	VCES
PAGES	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
LUGEOF
	ENGLOSURES (NO. & 1775)
REMARK	SENGLOSURES (NO. & TIPE)S
REMARK
REMARK
REMARK
REMARK 25X1
	The entire sirfield, located about 1.5 miles northeast of
Super American Super Sup	The entire sirfield, located about 1.5 miles northeast of GOTHA (A.51/J 06) and south of the road to KINDLEBEN (A.51/
Super American Super Sup	The entire sirfield, located about 1.3 miles northeast of GOTHA (£ 51/J 06) and south of the road to KINDLEBEN (£ 51/J 16), wes ploughed. The concrete runway, fuel tank installations and hangers had been demolished. The airfield
	The entire airfield, located about 1.5 miles northeast of GOTHA (A.51/J 06) and south of the road to KINDLEBEN (A.51/J 16), wes ploughed. The concrete runway, fuel tank installations and hangars had been demolished. The airfield area was allotted to four resettlers. Most of the kaserne
	The entire airfield, located about 1.5 miles northeast of GOTHA (M. 51/J 06) and south of the road to KINDLABEN (M. 51/J 16), was ploughed. The concrete runway, fuel tank installations and hangars had been demolished. The airfield area was allotted to four resettlers. Most of the kaserne buildings on the western field border were preserved and
Super American Super Sup	The entire airfield, located about 1.5 miles northeast of GOTHA (A.51/J 06) and south of the road to KINDLEBEN (A.51/J 16), wes ploughed. The concrete runway, fuel tank installations and hangars had been demolished. The airfield area was allotted to four resettlers. Most of the kaserne
25X1	The entire sirfield, located about 1.5 miles northeast of GOTHA (A 51/J 06) and south of the road to KINDLEEN (A 51/J 16), was ploughed. The concrete runway, fuel tank installations and hangars had been demolished. The airfield area was allotted to four resettlers. Most of the kaserne buildings on the western field border were preserved and occupied by civilians. The railroad spur track leading to the
	The entire sirfield, located about 1.3 miles northeast of GOTHA (£ 51/J 06) and south of the road to KINDLEBEN (£ 51/J 16), wes ploughed. The concrete runway, fuel tank installations and hangars had been demolished. The airfield area was allotted to four resettlers. Most of the kaserne buildings on the western field border were preserved and occupied by civilians. The railroad spur track leading to the airfield was intact but rusted and over grown.
25X1	The entire airfield, located about 1.5 miles northeast of GOTHA (M. 51/J 06) and south of the road to KINDLEBEN (M. 51/J 16), was ploughed. The concrete runway, fuel tank installations and hangars had been demolished. The airfield area was allotted to four resettlers. Most of the kaserne buildings on the western field border were preserved and occupied by civilians. The railroad spur track leading to the airfield was intact but rusted and over grown.	2

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008

CLASSIFICATION

NFIDENTIAL
CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL/CO OFFICIAL COLY